The WSI consultants have added Hostway's Web hosting services to their line of product offerings, enabling small to medium-sized business owners to create and manage Web presences.

"Hostway is thrilled to join the 'Global e-Marketplace' of vendors offered by WSI," says John Lee, VP of global marketing of Hostway. "We see this as an ideal partnership in which everyone benefits - the WSI consultants, Hostway and business owners - as it helps entrepreneurs take their businesses to the next level by taking advantage of products and services offered by Hostway at a discounted rate through their WSI consultant."

Hostway offers WSI customers a select group of plans and features and access to three
